

Sshh...
Don't Wake
the Baby

It's nearly Christmas!

Are you excited?

Do you know, at the very first Christmas things were just as exciting?

There
were angels.

There were shepherds.

And there was a baby.
A baby who would
change things forever!

Have you got a baby in
your house?

A baby is very small. But it can make a very big noise!

Everyone is so pleased
when, at last, the baby
goes to sleep.

We tiptoe round and say:

waaaaa!

“Sshh...
Don't wake
the baby!”

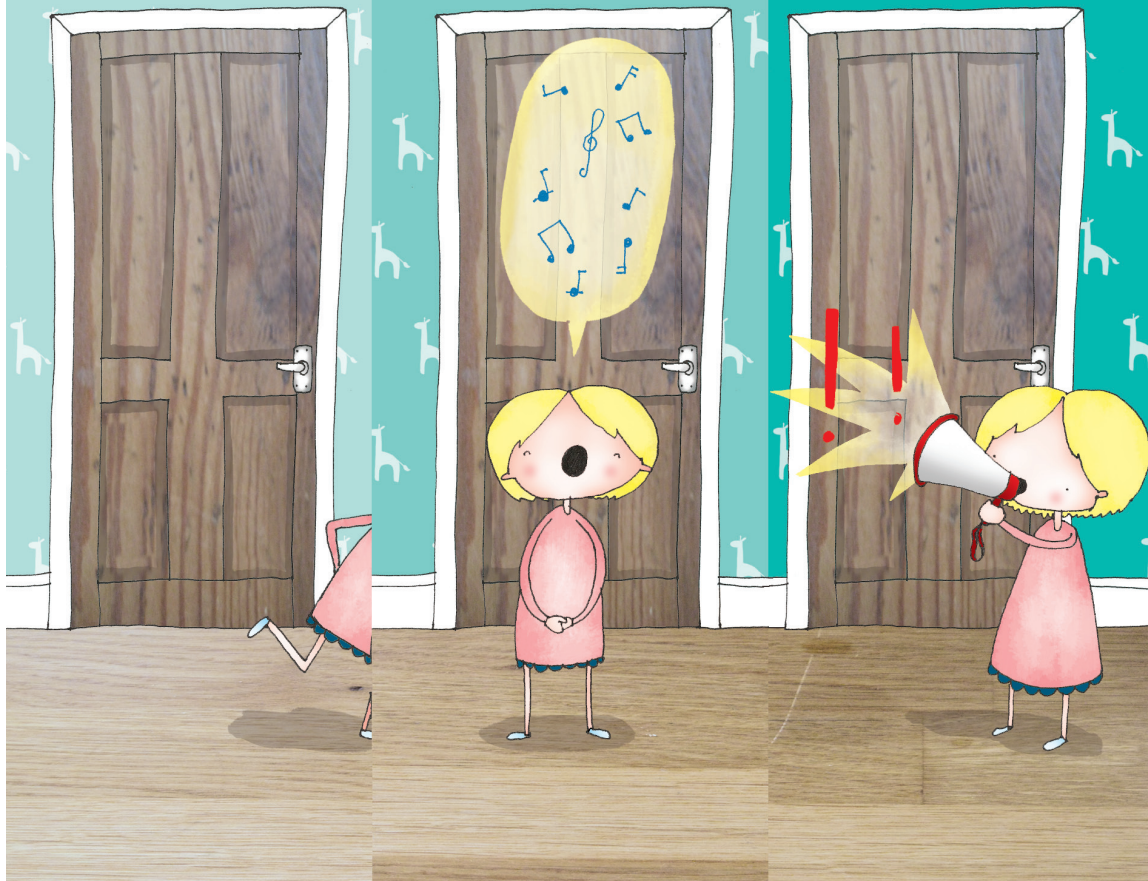

Whatever happens...
don't wake the baby!

No
running.

No
singing.

No
shouting.

Creep past her room.

Don't knock his pram.
