A TRUE STORY ABOUT WHO JESUS really IS

One day, long ago,
Jesus was teaching people by the sea.

Soon, some more people arrived.

Then others. Then more, AND MORE – until there were people

EVERYWHERE

WE CAN'T HEAR BACK HERE!

GIVE ME SOME ROOM!

The crowds were just too big!

No one could see Jesus and no one could hear Jesus.

So Jesus asked his friends, the disciples, to push their boat out onto the water.

He sat in the boat and the huge crowd spread out along the beach.

Now, they could all see and hear Jesus as he told them all about God.

When he finished teaching the people,
Jesus said to his friends:

LET'S GO OVER TO THE OTHER SIDE OF THE SEA.

Jesus had finished teaching the crowd, and now he had something to teach his friends

- but they didn't know it yet...

So they all jumped in the boat with him and set sail across the sea...

Jesus was so tired - he'd been teaching the people all day - so he lay down in the back of the boat and fell fast asleep.

It was a quiet evening.

The water gently lapped against the boat,
and the sun slowly set in the sky.

Jesus was sleeping.

The disciples were quietly talking.

Then all of a sudden...

ZZZZZZ

A dramatic, dark blue and black storm scene. A bright lightning bolt strikes down from the top right, illuminating a large, bright white cloud in the center. The background is filled with dark, swirling clouds and a heavy, rain-like atmosphere. The overall mood is intense and powerful.

They were in the middle of the biggest, loudest, scariest, most GINORMOUS storm you could imagine!

A dramatic, high-contrast photograph of a stormy sea. The water is a deep, dark blue, with a bright, shimmering light reflecting off the surface, creating a stark contrast. The overall mood is intense and turbulent.

The wind blew hard.

The waves grew huge.

The water poured into the boat...

But Jesus was asleep.

The wind blew harder.
The waves grew huger.
The water filled the boat.
But Jesus was still asleep.

JESUS!

WAKE UP! WAKE UP!

WE'RE DROWNING!

DON'T YOU CARE?

What a silly thing to say to Jesus!

Of course he cared.

He loved his friends so much that one day he was going to die for them.

Jesus stood up in the boat.
The wind was still blowing.

The waves were bigger than ever.

The water was pouring into the boat quicker than the disciples could tip it out again...

The boat was sinking!

But then Jesus did something amazing.

He didn't help his friends pour the water out of the boat. He didn't help them try to row back to land.

Jesus simply SPOKE.

But he didn't speak to the disciples.

He spoke to the storm.

To the wind. And to the waves.

A whimsical illustration of a small wooden boat on a dark, stormy sea. The sea is depicted with a dark blue and black color palette, featuring a large, bright white wave crashing over the boat. The sky is dark and filled with rain, represented by numerous thin, white diagonal lines. Inside the boat, two figures are visible: one in a red robe and another in a white robe. A large, white, teardrop-shaped speech bubble originates from the white-robed figure, containing the Latin phrase "QUI ET BE STILLI" written in a stylized, black, handwritten font.

QUI ET BE STILLI

Just three little words
...and the storm stopped.

Right away, at that very moment,
the sea was quiet, still and calm.

Then Jesus looked at his friends.

WHY ARE YOU SO AFRAID?
DO YOU STILL NOT TRUST ME?

But they were terrified.
And they asked each other:

WHO IS THIS?
EVEN THE WAVES AND WIND DO WHAT HE SAYS.

This is what Jesus
wanted to teach them.
He wanted them to know who he really is.

The disciples already knew a lot about God from his special book.
They knew that God made EVERYTHING.

He made the world.
He made the sun and the moon and the stars.

GO

GOD

And he made the sea
and the wind as well.

They knew that only God can tell the sea what to do. That only God can tell the wind when to blow or the waves when to crash.

Only God can do these things.

But the disciples had just seen Jesus do the same things God can do!

So what is the answer to their question?

Who is Jesus?

Jesus is...
GOD!
